

PUNE SPICE

A Weekly Calendar Of Events And Happenings
In The City

MUSIC

Swara Malhar returns with its 11th edition, presenting two evenings of Indian classical music and dance inspired by the monsoon. The festival features vocal recitals by Kalapini Komkali and Jayateerth Mevundi, a violin and flute duet by Atulkumar Upadhye and Ronu Majumdar, a tabla solo by Kumar Bose, and other renowned artists

Date: July 11-12

Time: 5pm

Venue: Ganesh Kala
Krida Manch, Swargate

Blended with storytelling and live music, Talez N Tunez is designed for toddlers and preschoolers to encourage creativity and screen-free engagement. Curated by storyteller Radhika Bagdai, the experience is accessible to neurodiverse children and aims to create an inclusive environment where young participants can sing, move and explore music together.

Date: July 25

Time: 4pm-7pm

Venue: High Spirits
Café, Koregaon Park

Inspired by the spiritual legacy of the Pandharpur Wari, Mauli: A Timeless Tradition is a Bharatanatyam production by acclaimed dancer Bala Devi Chandrashekar. Based on the abhangs and teachings of Warkari saints. It portrays the Wari's spiritual journey through dance and music.

Date: July 12

Time: 5pm-6.15pm

Venue: MES Auditorium, Mayur Colony, Kothrud

OTHERS

A day-long Gandhi Darshan Shibir will examine the relevance of Gandhian thought through talks, discussions and cinema. Writer Milind Joshi will speak on Mahadev Govind Ranade, while the programme will conclude with a screening of Jabbar Patel's National Award-winning Marathi film Mukta.

Date: July 12

Time: 10am to 5pm

Venue: Gandhi Bhavan, Kothrud